

CIRCULAR

WATER

STORIES

PAPER

PRESENTATIONS

WE LIKE TO INVITE YOU
FOR THE ONLINE EVENT TO CELEBRATE AND DISCUSS

2 SPOOL
(JOURNAL TU DELFT)
ISSUES ON:

CIRCULAR WATER
STORIES

THURSDAY THE 21ST OF APRIL
3.00- 5.00 PM
AMSTERDAM (CET)

V7/#2 - <https://www.spool.ac/index.php/spool/issue/view/18>

V8/#3 - <https://www.spool.ac/index.php/spool/issue/view/22>

Registration

Please register in advance for the symposium:
https://tudelft.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJArdmprTopE9zkFCI7Zyqf\_HTkj4qM\_gDb

The discussion evolves around two themes. Within each theme, two authors present their work. The other authors of CWS-Spool will give the first reflection.

Session (1): Learning from the past

Presentations:

A study on Asian gardens as parts of water network (V7/#2) by Akihiko Ono

Design by Radical Indigenism

(V8/#3) by Julia Watson, Hala Abukhodair Naema Ali, Avery Robertson, Hakim Issaoui & Chuanzhi Sun

Session (2): Social significands of water systems

Presentations:

Banjarmasin, where the river is the city

(V8/#3) by Peter Timmer & Jacqueline Rosbergen

Riverine Woman after Resettlement

(V8/#3) by Satya Maia Patchineelam

On behalf of the editorial team, Inge Bobbink, Suzanne Loen and Fransje Hooimeijer